No punching out of letters, no staples, no pins and no tape required. A unique adhesive makes these letters removable, repositionable and reusable. They adhere to any clean and dry surface that is smooth or slightly textured (even wood and painted brick walls), and are easy to use - just "peel and place". They are fade-resistant, acid free, leave no residue and never becomes permanent. Each package contains letters along with numbers and punctuation marks. Ideal for bulletin boards, signs, posters, presentation boards and much more.

The new Pacon® Dual Ruled Composition Books feature two alternating ruling styles. The right-hand page offers a 3/8" wide ruling for traditional note taking, and the left-hand page features a 1/4" grid ruling to draw coordinating graphs, illustrations and interpretations. Note taking in this manner engages both hemispheres of the brain and increases retention. This durable, hard cover, one-subject book features a Green cover with Light Green paper.
